John Henrikson

Dr. Stephen Lange (Former Choirmaster at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Voice Teacher):

"I was John's private voice teacher for 4 years. He was an extremely hard working and gifted student. He came to his lessons very well prepared... He was very successful as a singer, consistently getting superior ratings at festivals and being selected as one of the top singers in the state. He was one of my most dedicated and conscientious students."

Ms. Maureen Nauss (Former Waverly High School Choir Director):

"I have known John for five years, as his high school choir director, and find him to be hard-working, intelligent, and of excellent character, in addition to his outstanding musical ability. During high school, John participated actively in every music and performing opportunity he was offered. He was selected for all the highest musical honors that were available to him. Many of those opportunities came with great responsibility; he worked tirelessly to prepare himself for the top honors choir in Michigan, performed at (and won) elite competitions, and won scholarships based solely on his musical ability."

Zaikuan Song:

"You sound great and I have had fun on the stage with you!"

Michaela Larson:

"You bring as much talent and humor to Orpheus in the Underworld and working with you has been so fun. You always brighten my day, and you are a fabulous singer and an even better colleague. SING THOSE G'S!"
